

having to represent myself, as no attorney would take this matter pro-bono. I have no way to retain them with my house and bank accounts frozen in the courts. I am trying to research the proper way to address the respected courts in this matter and am having difficulties understanding what exactly I am reading. I am going to have trouble addressing the plaintiffs arguments where cases are listed because I do not know how to look up those cases which could be detrimental, or beneficial, to my case.

INTRODUCTION

I am awaiting the admissions, interrogatories, and document requests from the Commission before I, and the other Relief Defendants, make a claim for damages. I cannot find an attorney to take this case and find it unfair that I have to pick one out over the phone or the internet. I, also, find it appalling that I am requested to pay an attorney $50,000 for something that I know is mine and that I have legitimate claim of ownership of. I am, in fact, not a proper Relief Defendant on the grounds that I do have said ownership interest of said property at 2676 Palmetto Hall Boulevard in Mount Pleasant, SC 29466.

I know that everything is on a timely schedule for this trial, but I find it necessary for the requests from the Commission before the true and accurate claim for damages can be ascertained. It was my wrong understanding that a counter-suit had to be filed for damages to be attained. I do not want to waste more of anyone's time with something that does not have to be done but can be claimed through the same trial.

The Commission has 2 more weeks to have their admissions, interrogatories, and document requests sent back to me. At that time, I will immediately begin the calculations that will be fair and accurate claims from the Plaintiffs.

CONCLUSION

I respectfully request from the respected Court that patience be maintained until Darren Lee, Sheila Lee, and David Lee have the required requested documentation for damages claimed.

I thank the Court for its time and patience in this filing and realize it may not be correct in every legal respect.

Respectfully Submitted,
