

1. all life insurance policies owned or held beneficially, directly or indirectly, by or for the benefit of ABC and/or the ABC Investors, that were purchased from the date of inception of ABC through September 30, 2000 ("Policies");

2. all assets of ABC necessary to accomplish the objectives of the Conservatorship listed below including, but not limited to, computer hardware, databases, software, ABC Investor and viator files relating to the Policies, accounting and financial records pertaining to premium payments and receipt and distribution of proceeds on the Policies, any deposit of cash, bond or guarantee, filing cabinets, office supplies, the lease to office space at 105 East Robinson Street, Suite 320, Orlando, Florida 32801, and telephone systems;

3. all premium reserve accounts and bank accounts into which ABC Investor funds or proceeds from Policies have been deposited; and

4. the right to recoup from the proceeds of the Policies all funds advanced by ABC to finance the payment of premiums on the Policies.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Conservator is given directions and authority to accomplish the following:

1. to take custody, possession and control of the Conservatorship Assets as they are transferred to Conservator;

2. to manage all Conservatorship Assets pending further action by this Court including, but not limited to, the evaluation of the Policies, and to take the necessary steps to protect the ABC Investors' interests including, but not limited to, the liquidation or sale of the Policies to institutional buyers and the assessment to ABC Investors of future premium payments;

3. to receive and collect any and all sums of money due or owing on the Policies to ABC or its agents whether the same are due or shall hereinafter become due and payable;

4. to seek the return of any cash, bond or guarantee on deposit with any regulatory agency or other entity on behalf of ABC or its agents;

5. to make such payments and disbursements as may be necessary and advisable for the preservation of the Conservatorship Assets and as may be necessary and advisable in discharging his duties as Conservator including, but not limited to, the timely payment of all premiums for Policies that have not yet matured;

6. to monitor the viators of the Policies by tracking the location of the viators and periodically checking the health of the viators;

7. to receive notice of the death of viators, file death claims on the viators, and collect the proceeds paid on the Policies as such mature;

8. to disburse to each ABC Investor his proportionate share of the proceeds paid on matured Policies, which amount may be reduced by the total amount of any premium payments advanced by ABC or the Conservator on behalf of such ABC Investor;

9. to establish open communication with ABC Investors with proper disclosure of available options and consequences including, but not limited to, notice to ABC Investors of this Conservatorship Order within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order;

10. to retain and employ attorneys, accountants, computer consultants and other persons as may be advisable or necessary to the exercise of the duties of the Conservator. Conservator may immediately retain or employ such persons, and compensate such persons, all subject to application to and approval by the Court;

11. to open and inspect any and all mail and/or deliveries if same relate to the existence, location, identity and/or collection, preservation, maintenance or operation of Conservatorship Assets, and to notify any insurance company or third party administrator and the United States Postal Service to effect the forward delivery of any mail related to the Conservatorship Assets to a mail depository under the control of the Conservator;

12. to institute, prosecute, defend, intervene in or become party to such actions or proceedings in any state court, federal court or United States bankruptcy court as may in the Conservator's opinion be necessary or proper for the protection, maintenance and preservation of the Conservatorship Assets, or the carrying out of the terms of this Conservatorship Order; and

13. to exercise those powers necessary to implement his conclusions with regard to disposition of this Conservatorship pursuant to the orders and directives of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that ABC and its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, shall immediately begin the process of transferring the ownership and beneficial rights to the Conservatorship Assets to the Conservator until all Conservatorship Assets have been transferred. The transfer process shall conclude within ninety (90) days of the execution of this Order. If for any reason any Conservatorship Asset has not been transferred on or before end of the ninety (90) day period, ABC and/or its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, shall provide a list to the Conservator of the Conservatorship Assets that have not been transferred and the reasons therefor.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order supercedes the order of this Court dated May 10, 2001, that prohibited the assessment or collection of future premium payments from ABC Investors.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that ABC pay and maintain all office expenses, salaries, and other costs of the Conservatorship until at least seventy-five percent (75%) of all Conservatorship Assets have been transferred to the Conservator.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all persons and entities, including ABC, its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting on their behalf, under their direction and control, and/or in active concert or participation with them, and further including any banks or financial institutions, wherever chartered or located, life insurance companies, federal and state agencies, viators, viatical settlement providers, and viatical settlement brokers who receive actual notice of this Conservatorship Order, by personal service, facsimile transmission or otherwise, shall promptly deliver and surrender to the Conservator:

1. all Conservatorship Assets in the possession of or under the control of any one or more of them; and
2. all books and records of any kind pertaining to the Conservatorship Assets, to the ABC Investors, or to the viators whose lives are insured by the Policies.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all persons and entities, including ABC, its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting on their behalf, under their direction and control, and/or in active concert or participation with them, and further including any banks or financial institutions, wherever chartered or located, life insurance companies, federal and state agencies, viators, viatical settlement providers, and viatical settlement brokers who receive actual notice of this Conservatorship Order, by personal service, facsimile transmission or otherwise, fully cooperate with and assist the Conservator and that they take no action, directly or indirectly, to hinder or obstruct the Conservator in the conduct of his duties or to interfere in any manner, directly or indirectly, with the custody, possession or control exercised by said Conservator.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Conservator is authorized, without breaching the peace, to enter and secure any premises under the control of ABC or its agents, wherever located or situated, in order to take possession, custody or control of, or to identify the location or existence of, any Conservatorship Assets.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Conservator may apply to the Court for compensation, from time to time, in a reasonable sum to be determined by the Court and from such sources as approved by the Court and for reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with his duties as Conservator. The fees and expenses of the Conservator shall have priority over any other claims made against ABC. The Conservator shall not be required to give any bond. The Oklahoma Department of Securities shall have the authority to seek removal of the Conservator for cause and upon approval of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that except by leave of Court during the pendency of this Conservatorship, all creditors and other persons seeking money, damages or other relief from ABC or its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, and all others acting on behalf of any such creditor or other persons, including sheriffs, marshals, and other officers and their deputies, and their respective attorneys, servants, agents, and employees, are hereby stayed and restrained from doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with ABC or its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, in the orderly transfer of the Conservatorship assets or the Conservator or to the possession of or management by the Conservator of the Conservatorship Assets, or to interfere in any manner during the pendency of this proceeding with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over ABC. This Conservatorship Order shall not stay or restrain any pending or future action whatsoever by any government agency or any representative on behalf of any government.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any Conservatorship Assets remaining at the conclusion of the Conservatorship shall be transferred to ABC.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that ABC and its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, be held harmless from any and all liability, costs and damages arising in connection with each Conservatorship Asset after each such asset has been transferred to the Conservator.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Conservator be held harmless from any and all liability, costs and damages arising from acts of ABC and its agents, including American Title Company of Orlando and David Piercefield, before Conservatorship Assets have been transferred to the Conservator.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Conservator may rely on applicable exclusions or exemptions from registration under the Act in connection with the offer and/or sale of securities to institutional buyers in and/or from the state of Oklahoma.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter and ABC for all purposes.

Dated this 6th day of February, 2002.
